“ Walt and I moved in next door to Chuck and Becky on August 8, 1988. Two twenty somethings with a little two year old daughter and no family in town. They took us under their wing and a wonderful 30+ year friendship began. When they moved a couple of years ago, I could hardly go out in our back yard for several months. All the laughs, home improvement advice, shared recipes, and sometimes tears shared over "the fence". I have so many stories I hope to share with Stacy, Rob, and the grandkids. Ask me about the goldfish :) The one thing I will never, ever forget is Chuck's laugh. I can hear it now through my tears as I write this. There was nothing better after a hard day than to go outside to tend to yet another task and see Chuck out in the backyard to share a laugh with. Our family will always be there for all of you.
