“ Charlie is one of those people you meet in your life that you never forget. I met Charlie when we were in our 20's. We both lived in Speedway..On the apartments above the drugstore at the corner of Lyndhurst and 16th St. We had some great times together..Them I saw him on facebook when he said he had been diagnosed with cancer..20's then meeting again our 50's..Charlie you are never forgotten..Rest in peace my friend.

My friend Chuck Petruzzi. He liked crafts. We learned many in our speedway group. Wreaths, jewelry, food ideas. That group became a family.

“ These are belated condolences to family and friends of Chuck. Chuck and I shared a lot together as neighbors where we lived until he passed. We were neighbors over 10 years, 3 of which were truly the most difficult of my life and though we weren't super close we got to know each other on some deep levels over our talks and he was truly there for me and had my back. I miss him dearly. He was an honorable, good man and my good friend. I am sad without him but he passed on great strength to me that I tap into all my life. May God have him and me at he rest in peace.

“ You are in my prayers... I went to high school with Charles and I think we were in homeroom together. I lost touch with him and a lot of the Class of '76 after graduation but will always remember him as a good guy with a good sense of humor....

“ Our deepest sympathies to everyone Chuck knew. God certainly acquired one heck of an angel. My husband and I were friends with Chuck for over 30 years. He was best man at our wedding, hugged, cuddled, and watched cartoons with all five of our children. He kept us laughing and smiling, and when things got tough, he comforted us through our tears. I can never repay or put into words how much of a wonderful person he was but our hearts ache for our dear friend.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Charles...He was a NHS classmate of mine and I last saw him at a small get-together our class had about three years ago. It was really nice to reconnect with him there and on FB, but I knew then that he was dealing with some health issues. He was a fighter, but now he is at peace. I will miss him and pray for him and the family. I am glad our class had an opportunity to reach out when we signed a card for you at our 40th reunion last fall. RIP, Charles Petruzzi.

Four years ago, I was enjoying breakfast when I noticed a man at the...counter who looked familiar. I finally asked him if he had ever gone to my high school and did we graduate the same year ? The answer was yes. This rekindled a friendship. We shared our love of hanging out at diners and visiting whenever we could. I am grateful for this time we had together. Rest in peace dear friend.,

My condolences and prayers go out to the family of this great man. Although we hadn't remained in touch over the years I thought about him often. He helped me through some very tough times and for that I will be forever grateful. One of his close friends shared something very touching with me recently. She said he had always wished nothing but the best for me and said how proud he was of my daughter and her achievements. You were loved by many and will be missed my many Chuck. Until we meet again old friend. RIP
