“ Everyone always says how goofy charlie was, well this picture right here proves it. He was there for me through the hardest times and he always made me laugh. Unfortunately God took him away from us on Friday and nkw i dont have that extra happiness in my life. Charlie always had a kind heart to everyone and never hated anyone or had any hate in his system towards anyone. He was ALWAYS smiling and even if he was so tired that he didnt want to come to school, or he didnt feel the best, he still came even with a smile on his face! So im gonna miss this goofy smile i got to see all of the time, but now i get to look positively on the great memories we made together! I love you Charlie and I miss you like absolute crazy!!! -Sophie💕

“ I’ve known Charlie ever since 5th grade he was the greatest guy ever. When someone was down he would pick them back up. He would always make people laugh and smile even if they never really laugh or smile. I lost contact of him after he left New Castle and went to Franklin but I really wish I never did loose contact of him. I feel like I could have been there for him through whatever he was going through. Everyone is struggling through things even if you might not see it in someone but that person is just trying to hide it away from others. Charlie was always funny and good at wrestling and football he would always be a light in people’s lives. I’m so sad to see you go Charlie we will all miss him. ❤️❤️❤️
