Cheryl Ann Coleman, 63, of Fortville, passed away October 25, 2024 surrounded by her loving family. Cheryl was born January 28, 1961 in Anderson, IN to the late Herbert and Barbara (Webb) Head. Cheryl loved her grandchildren. She treasured decorating for Christmas for her family to make that time together special. But no matter the time of the year, she was always with many special friends and family just hanging out talking, sitting around a bonfire, enjoying life. She was such a great friend to many. As a mother, Cheryl is irreplaceable. She was always there for her children. Ricky’s favorite memory was taking her for rides in Black Betty. She had a fierce and protective love for her family. She also enjoyed growing beautiful flowers and plants.

“ Cheryl is very special to me and was my very first best friend. Since we lived one street away from each other, we saw each other and played together a lot. God put us together for a while, then we would drift apart as we grew. The last time God drew us together again, we had the time of our lives, going to concerts, laughing, watching the eclipse and talking about growing up apart from each other and how different our lives were. She was one special person to many many people. God prepared a place for her and I am sure she is in her place of eternal rest. I love you Cheryl! You are so sadly missed here on earth. I will miss you Cheryl, until God reunites us again!💔

“ My best buddy’s Mama, he loved you with all his heart Cheryl, his entire family did. What an awesome job you did in raising an amazing father, husband, and my best friend. The times I met you were awesome and unforgettable because Ricky always had to reintroduce us cause you would forget me but at Ryder’s graduation you gave me and big hug and I’ll never forget it this and what you said. You will be missed but I promise you will never be forgotten. My heart goes out to Ricky, Chelsey and the kids, Ricky’s dad and the entire family.

“ Aunt Cheryl and I used to stay up late watching scary movies. But our all time favorite was The Wizard of Oz. First time I saw that movie was with Aunt Cheryl. We got SOOOO excited when the color came in. We jumped up and down. She was so happy at how amazed I was.

Aunt Cheryl was another mother to myself and my sister. She was my mom's best friend. She was a great listener, gave good advice, and had kindest heart. We loved laughing together.... HARD laughing until you can't breathe kind of laughs. We enjoyed listening to music together. She looked forward to any new music I'd bring her. Aunt Cheryl was so much more than what she was to each of us. She was an angel. She was best of best. Doesn't get any better than Aunt Cheryl

“ I met Cheryl when I was about 15 years old. She was always kind to me. I married into the family in 1976 when I married her cousin Alan Head and she always treated me like a true family member. She loved her family fiercely and also all the many friends and extended family the same. She will be missed dearly but I know someday we will all be together again and what a joyous family reunion that will be. Fly high my dear Cheryl.❤️
