

Cheryl Diane Hauth-Forgie

October 16, 1952 - December 3, 2018

Cheryl Diane Hauth-Forgie,

66, of Indianapolis, passed away December 3, 2018. She was born October 16, 1952 in Portland, IN, to the late Earl and Rosemary Brumm; living and working on the family homestead in her early years. Cheryl received her Bachelor's Degree and Master's Degree from Ball State University. She was a devoted English professor for UIndy and IUPUI for 20+ years.

Cheryl is survived by her husband, Mike Forgie; daughters, Kelsey C. Hauth and Morgan A. Hauth; granddaughter, Katelyn Alyse Hauth; sister, Roseann Hough; nieces, Summer Urick and Amanda Phillips; nephews, Chad and Dustin Urick; stepsons, David W., Peter M. and Matthew W. Forgie; and many step-grandchildren. Arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel. Memorial contributions are suggested to the American Cancer Society. www.shirleybrothers.com.

Tribute Wall

CM

“ Prof Hauth was exceptionally kind me when i was an unfocused kid. I flamed out after I had her. But found direction and am finishing law school now. I've never forgotten her. She was the only teacher I had that saw me as a person and took time to help me succeed

Chris McDaniel - March 25 at 09:21 AM

AR

“ So sorry to hear about Cheryl's passing. We are just a phone call away.

Randy and Angela Van Riper

Angela Van Riper - December 05, 2018 at 07:23 PM