

Christine M. Dahlberg

March 26, 1951 - May 9, 2025

Christine Marie Dahlberg, born 3/26/1951 died 5/9/2025. She was a member of a very close family and enjoyed being the "opinionated matriarch". She loved spending time with her many nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews. Always encouraging creativity, helping with projects and ideas. She enjoyed lively debates, conversations and loved to share diverse ideas. Parents; Leslie Jr. and Donna (Mcguire) Dahlberg; siblings, Cyndy Ennis (Mike), Carol Meyer, Cheri Luna (deceased) ,and Les Dahlberg III (deceased); nieces and nephews, Dan Luna, Sarah Phelps (Bub), Alex Ennis (Dawn), Evan Ennis (Aja), Donna Waltz (Blake), Jack Clark, Andrew Clark (Felicia); great nieces and nephews, Bella and Eli Ennis, Marina, Jack and Scarlett Clark, Drew, Gage and Brittany (Luna) Phelps. She had a large extended family, and many called her "Aunt Kiki ". Her professional career included The Governor's Planning council for people with Disabilities from April 29, 1985 to retirement as director in July 2021. She made disability advocacy her life's work and was instrumental in the parents and policy making program which produced 600 graduates statewide. She was concerned about women's rights and very politically motivated, actively campaigning for her candidates and writing postcards to constituents in swing states. You had to be careful, or you would end up writing them with her. She was very passionate about her beliefs and didn't just "talk the talk" but "walked the walk". She read constantly and has been seen reading at stoplights "true story". Kindle was a wonderful invention during her time, but she also enjoyed turning pages. She had many friends from college as well as coworkers, colleagues, and of course her wine club members. Her family would like people to celebrate her life with food, wine, and conversation. Let's gather together, tell stories and support a cause you're passionate about.

There will be a celebration of life for Christine later this summer. Please be our guests, details to come.
