

Clarabelle A. Salmon

March 29, 1913 - January 4, 2009

95, of Indianapolis, passed away January 4, 2009. One of ten children, she was born March 29, 1913 to James and Retinella Grant in Woodside St. Mary, Jamaica. Clarabelle was a homemaker and a seamstress before she began her mission of helping the elderly as an in-home private nurse in the state of New York. She was a member of St. Michael's and All Angels in Kingston, Jamaica where she was involved with the Daughters of the King and the Mother's Union. She attended St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Indianapolis. A memorial service will be held January 24, 2009 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, 8320 E. 10th St., Indianapolis, 46219. Clarabelle is survived by one sister, Floretta Jackson; her daughters, Cheryl Phillips and Kaye Palmer, and her husband Dennis; daughter-in-law, Monica Grant; grandchildren, Denyse and Natalie Palmer, of Indianapolis; Richard Smith, Gary, Kevin and Debbie Grant, Stephen, Brian, and Karelle Phillips, Patrick, Howard and Kevin Andrade, Michelle Andrade Moore; great-grandchildren, Ashley, Abigail, Nicholas, Andrew and Claudine; and one great-granddaughter. Her husband, Verley Salmon, sons, Neville Grant and Calvin Salmon, preceded her in death. Her daughter, Phyllis Andrade, passed hours after Clarabelle, January 4th. Memorial contributions may be made to the Dayspring Homeless Shelter, P.O. Box 44105, Indianapolis, 46244. Arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.