

Cleon Duncan

March 30, 1925 - April 17, 2011

86, of Indianapolis, passed away April 17, 2011. He was born March 30, 1925 to the late Noble and Alma Clara Adair. Cleon attended Cartersburg Grade School and Danville High School. He also attended the University of Heidelberg, Germany for a short period of time. He served in the US Army in Europe for 11 years. His last duty assignment in the Army was with the 64th Ordnance Detachment (EOD). Cleon retired after having served with the army for 20 years. He served 10 years as the Director of the Post Museum at Ft. Benjamin Harrison. His last civil service assignment was with supply in the Military Personnel, Ft. Harrison. He retired after accumulating almost 30 years in civil service. Visitation will be held Thursday, April 21, from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St., with funeral services to follow at 12:00 p.m. Cleon is survived by his loving wife, Linda; two daughters, Linda Sue Gibson and Regina (Jon) Lessa; and 2 grandchildren, Paul Gibson and Christine Winkelspecht; great-grandchildren, Justin and Bubba Winkelspecht. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Building Fund at the Christians United at Soldiers Memorial Chapel, 5626 Lawton Loop East Drive, Ft. Harrison.