

Clessie E. Harding

October 18, 1917 - March 28, 2012

Clessie E. Harding, 94, of Indianapolis, passed away March 28, 2012. She was born October 18, 1917, in Alton, MO, to the late William W. and Prudence Annie Parker. Clessie married Gayle Randall Harding, and he preceded her in death in 2010. She was a bus matron for IPS Schools for many years, and a hostess for BJ Travels. Clessie was a longtime member of Post Road Christian Church, a 50 year member of O.E.S., a member of Sahara Grotto Greeters Auxiliary, and a volunteer at Warren Performing Arts Center. Visitation will be Saturday, March 31, 2012, from 1:00 p.m. until the time of service at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 E. Washington St. Clessie is survived by her daughter, Cheryl (Tom) Wegner; grandchildren, Michael (Brooke) Wegner, Stephen Wegner, and Erin (Fin[◆]nce, Will) Wegner; and one great-grandson on the way. Three sisters, and six brothers, also preceded her in death. Memorial contributions may be made to FAVARH, P.O. Box 1099, Canton, CT, 06109.