

Cody Michael Williams

March 8, 1975 - February 11, 2023

Cody Michael Williams, 47, of Carmel, Indiana died on Saturday, Feb 11th. Cody is survived by Nicole Williams, his daughter and “best friend” Anna Williams, his parents Bob and Cindy Williams, his sister Toni DeKeyser, her husband David, his nephews Grant DeKeyser and Lucas Moore, niece Anne Marie DeKeyser, along with a host of extended family members that loved him dearly including his Aunt and Uncle who were like second parents, Jeff and Nancy Pruner, and his cousin and semi-little-sister Andi Malcolm, her husband Terry and daughter Charli.

Cody was born in St. Louis but was quickly relocated to Indy by his parents to be closer to extended family. Growing up Cody was incredibly smart, funny, and easily the star of the family as he was in several tv commercials as a child. His prized possession was an ATV given to him by his Uncle Jeff and Aunt Nanny that he loved to use to torment his sister. He loved playing baseball and his coach was often his own dad. He was the best at making friends, and also the best at keeping those friends for his lifetime.

Some of those lifelong friends were made as early as his days at Mary Castle Elementary. After high school at Lawrence North, class of 1993, he went to college at Indiana University. He was a proud Hoosier and a proud member of the SAE fraternity. He loved college so much he went an extra year. After college he worked in sales; a perfect job for someone who had never met a stranger.

In 2005 he married Nicole and then in 2010 they had Anna. Anna had Cody wrapped around her finger from the moment she was born. He always referred to her as his best friend, and he lit up at the very mention of her name.

Cody was a friend to all, incredibly loyal, loved kids (mostly because he had the same maturity level), and loved dogs. He was funny, sarcastic, playful, mischievous, and as one of his friends pointed out, fussy. Everyone who knew him has a story about him. Stories of how funny he was, how easy he was to talk to, and some stories that probably shouldn't be repeated.

Cody's family takes comfort in knowing that he is with all of his grandparents who he loved so much, his older brother who died at birth, and his beloved dog Hooker (don't ask).

“ Cody and I had a love/hate relationship. Definitely more love than hate, though. I wanted to send my condolences as I will be in St. Louis (did not know Cody was born there) with my youngest son this weekend. Steve will be there on Sunday. He was Cody’s partner in crime starting in high school at LN. I met Cody very early on during our freshman year at IU. I have lots of fun and funny memories with Cody. He meant a lot to both of us. He was in our wedding. We are both so very very sad. May he finally be at peace.

“ My heart is broken for all of you.

I remember Cody as a ten year old neighbor and friend of my son. Even when we moved away, Carl and Cody remained friends. Cody even accompanied us on a family vacation to Myrtle Beach in 1993.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this terrible time. I can't be with you as I am out of state in the winter, but I will be there in prayer.

May all of your family find peace and comfort in knowing Cody is no longer suffering. He is with God.

*Love and prayers,
