

Corey J. Hendricks

October 8, 1974 - February 8, 2012 passed away at his home on February 8, 2012 after a courageous seven month battle with cancer. He is survived by his wife of 14 years and the love of his life, Michelle Clifford Hendricks. He was born on October 8, 1974 in Harvard, Illinois to his parents, Keith and Deb Hendricks of Loves Park, Illinois who survive him. Corey graduated from Eastern Illinois University where he was a member of the track team and studied elementary education. He went on to teach middle school math for the next 13 years in the Indianapolis area where he touched the lives of his students and colleagues alike. He taught at Shortridge Middle School, Hamilton Southeastern, Chapel Hill Middle School, and most recently at Northview Middle School. Corey loved sports and was a dedicated coach in football, wrestling, track, and was even rumored to have coached soccer (which by his own admission, he knew nothing about!) Corey was the proud daddy to his four sons, Andrew (11), Jacob (8), Nicholas (5) and Connor (1), who along with his wife were the center of his life. He is also survived by his grandmother, Betty (Don) Mergen; brothers, Chris of Rockford, IL, and Chad (Stacie) of Ft. Collins, Co. He was the son-in-law of Mike and Bernie Clifford; brother-in-law to Jennie and Jason Greer, Sarah and Joe Agresta and Kevin and Amanda Clifford; as well as many nieces, nephews and cousins.. too numerous to name. In lieu of flowers, a benefit dinner and auction for his family will be held as a celebration of Corey's life on Friday, February 24th at the Atrium Reception Hall on the Southside of Indianapolis. Please contact Sarah Agresta or Jennie Clifford for information. Visitation will be held Saturday, February 11, 2012 from noon until 6:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. Funeral services will be Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at Hamilton Hills Baptist Church, 10293 E. 126th St., Fishers.
