“ Dan,

You were such an important part of my childhood. Thanks for the long talks on the big rock, for helping me improve at Tetris, and letting me ride in your bike's handlebars. I know my life is richer because you were a part of it. Rest in The Lord, old friend.

“ Dan "The Man",

Thanks for all the great conversations and laughs we had when we got to work together. I am going to miss the opportunities to laugh with you even more because we didn't work together on a daily basis. Batteries Plus will definitely miss you, my friend.

“ We are all better human beings for having even 10 minutes talking to Dan, or, if we were lucky, most of our lives to get to know what a kind, decent person he was...for he never left you feeling anything but warm feelings...and, typically, laughing your butt off! I just know, in Dan style, he is looking down at his family...his lovely wife...beautiful children....and friends, and putting everyone's feelings first. He was one of the kindest..most generous people I have known in my life.

*"Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die."*

“ Daniel, I still cannot believe that you have left our world & gone to live with Christ in Heaven. I am older - I have seen many before you pass on, but losing you my sweet nephew seems to have touched my heart more than most. It was so unexpected, so sudden, so heartbreaking. My heart aches for your wife, your children, Mom & Dad & your brothers. They will be in my Prayers, I pray that the Lord will hold them up through this unbearable pain. You touched so many lives, so many love you & will miss you. I know that though we did not see each other near enough, the times I did have with you meant something to me. Your shining smile, your warm hug, I love you Daniel... You are a Star in the Face of the Sky... The world will be grayer without you... This is my favorite photo of Daniel, because of that smile!
