“ Danielle and I worked together in the FSSA Medicaid office. We shared a cubicle wall and she introduced me to the whole office of 100 plus people on my first day of work. She had just gotten back from maternity leave. She was always so sweet and welcoming. I loved hearing about the kids and seeing pictures of them growing up. I was always impressed with how prepared she was for work even with two kids at home. I admired Danielle a lot and will always cherish the memories I have of her. ”
