“ Well I've written twenty things down and erased them all... don't know where to begin. ... so I'll just say I will always remember your laugh and crazy sense of humor.....you had a way of making lite of bad thing's and making seem not so bad. You had a very kind heart and even though you tried to hide it, it was always clear to see. I love you Uncle Danny and I'll see you again one day.

“ Danny, may the good lord wrap you in his loving arms. I know mom and the rest of the family that has gone before you are rejoicing!! We all knew you were mom's favorite, always her baby!! I can still hear her telling me, Linda and Helen, Let him watch his cartoon's and we would always say, you always let him do everything he wants and you would be laughing because we were mad and you got your way, I don't think it was really about you getting what you wanted, you loved seeing our response and you certainly would have all our attention! I loved your sense of humor, always pulling jokes and you always found a way to laugh at everything. May you rest in peace, you will be forever in our hearts and sadly missed. Love and miss you, your sister, Frieda
