“ My stepfather, Darryl, was a great man. He was the best Papaw to his 6 grandchildren and always willing to play dolls, have his nails painted and wrestle! My mom, Vicky, and Darryl married 13 years ago and chared amazing memories at Delaney's creek! Darryl was a loving father and never forgot to say "I love you." I'll always remember his humor and night time cravings. He always stumbled out of bed for peanut butter and jelly:) You are ready greatly missed. We love you so much-Christian Loy

“ Many memories of Daryl and the old neighborhood growing up. Daryl always was laughing and smiling. From sledding, swinging vines and apple fights in the 56 acres or so of woods a lot of fond memories. May Daryl rest now in God's arms now and someday all of us will be up there with him, sledding, swinging on vines and eating apples in heaven.

“ It was only last summer in June that Roger and I met Darryl and Vicky at Delaney Park. There that night sitting around their table....a friendship began. From campfires at Uncle David's, golf cart rides with the Taskey's, great meals at our place, to the last card game at their place (just the Friday before last)....you, Darryl, will be greatly missed. Darryl was always ready for living life to its fullest. We are so grateful that we got to know Darryl and spending time making wonderful memories that will stay with us forever.

“ All of us can learn from the life of Darryl. Every time I saw Darryl his smile and laughter were always from the heart, and he made you feel special. But, in fact he was the special one. I will always remember Darryl as a true friend and never forget his ability to make me smile and laugh. Terry Thimlar
