*Dear Mr. & Mrs. DeWitt, I just came back from the desert outside Ajo, Az. (Darby Well Loop) where I saw a nice memorial to your son, David. I don't know you, nor did I know him, but I want to say I'm sorry for your loss. David is in a beautiful desert where I too want my ashes spread when I'm gone. (I'm presuming his remains are in the vicinity of the memorial). Again, sorry for your loss.
