“ I just read my message today my beloved brother Dave passed away on June 29. I am in tears thinking of our childhood memories:. The time the neighbor shot at a rabbit, Dave and I ran to see what happened and he fell and cut his hand, the neighbor thought he shot him. The times we would play baseball and he would through the ball in the air and I would try to catch it and sprain my thumb and I would throw the glove at him because he threw the ball too high, He would just laugh. He was always easy going and friendly. I will miss him, but the memories will always be there. Katy, I know you will miss him and together you brought 3 wonderful children in this world. God Bless You.and your family.
