

David William Russell

June 20, 1984 - November 7, 2007

David William Russell, 23, of Indianapolis died Wednesday, November 7th, 2007 with those who cared about him the most by his side. He was a 2002 graduate of North Central High School and attending Purdue University. He is survived by his parents, Andrew and Joanna Russell; sisters, Laurie and Katharine; brother, Michael and niece Addiena Jo. David's passions were his family, his music, and most of all the love of his life, Lisa Tehan. David will be remembered mostly for his gentle, caring nature, strength and unwavering positive attitude. He will always be our hero. Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel will be handling the arrangements. Please join us in a celebration of his life anytime between 2:00-6:00 p.m., Saturday, November 17 at his family's home, 1800 E. 80th Street. Indianapolis, 46240. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions would be gratefully received by the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, 941 E. 86th Street, Suite 100, Indianapolis, IN, 46240. Our sincere and heartfelt thanks go to the sixth-floor nurses and doctors at St. Vincent and St. Francis Hospitals. Your thoughtfulness and care will always be remembered. Condolences may be placed online at www.carinbridge.org/visit/davidwrussell.