“ Dave "Porkchop" Shipman was an amazing friend. Any time I needed him he was there for me and I hope I was there for him just as often. He and rest of us spent many nights, days and events together. He was always a big goof, which worked well with my monotone. I've been missing him for years and I lament the fact that I never got a chance to properly say goodbye. I know you're up there bothering Pastor Stecher and hanging out with Chris "Blaze" in their house, Chop. When we all see each other again let's play some pool and talk about our favorite foods, the best Tony Jaa movie and how hard it is to be so awesome. Love you, big guy. I always will, brother.
