

David J. Young

October 24, 1931 - April 8, 2014

David J. Young, 82, of Beech Grove passed away April 8, 2014. He was born October 24, 1931 in Beech Grove, IN, to the late William and Florence Kinick Young. David graduated from Franklin Central High School, class of 1949 and served his country in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War receiving a Bronze Star. He married Patricia Throneberry, December 18, 1965. He worked in the trucking business for 35 years, retiring from Overnight Trucking as terminal manager in 1991. He was a member of Calvary Tabernacle and the American Legion Post.

Visitation will be Sunday, April 13, 2014, from 2:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel, 3333 E. Thompson Rd., with funeral services Monday, at 2:00 p.m.

David is survived by his loving wife of 48 years, Patricia L. Young; daughter, Lori Michelle Young; grandchildren, Chastin, Austin, Westin, Tylin, Coltin and Casin; great-granddaughter, Aubrey; and his pets, Buster and Callie. His brothers, Charles and Robert Young, preceded him in death.

David was the rock of the family, was loved very much, and the Lord was the light of his life. He will be greatly missed.

Memorial contributions may be made to Calvary Christian School and/or Anderson University Baseball Department.

“ I miss you so much Daddy. You were my everything. I am lost without you. I would give anything to have you back with us. I am so blessed to have you as a father. You went above and beyond for us all. I will make sure that mom is taking care of just like you did. The boys are torn apart Dad, you were there everything. I love you more than anything and I will never be the same. You were our rock and I will make you proud and protect your hard earned legacy. Love you Daddy.

“ My uncle Dave was a soft spoken , positive, good man who will be missed by all who knew and loved him. Although nothing removes the pain of such a loss, I will find comfort in knowing he has joined the good lord and many family members who passed before him.
