

Davneet Singh Chahal

March 21, 1997 - May 15, 2019

Dav was a man of passion. He let his drive for the things he loved govern his actions and emotions. Anyone and everyone that knew Davneet would say he loved to play soccer more than anything else in this world. But at the same time, he loved the ones close to him more than anyone could ever fathom. Dav did not have many desires, he was a simple man. He was always happy-go-lucky. He respected his peers and elders which earned him respect back. Davneet loved to dance, listen to music, play soccer and just be around his friends. Gone too soon but never forgotten.

Visitation will be Saturday, May 18, 2019 from 1:00 p.m. until the time of service at 3:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel, 3333 East Thompson Road.

Davneet is survived by his parents, Davinder Singh and Ravneet Kaur Chahal; grandmother, Rajinder Kaur; and sister, Mannat Kaur.

“ We never met, but you were very special to one I am close to. Like her brother she used to say. I lost my brother in a car crash 5 years ago. Too familiar with this grief that your families are going through right now. I pray for all of you. Your parents. Are like my parents now. We never move on. We will live with your young beautiful face everyday. Mourning all the way from the UK
