“ Debbie was a kind and thoughtful friend who I met in the second grade. Not many know that she used to take care of the needs of three elderly neighbor ladies for a very long time. She would take food to them, and she and another neighbor would take turns taking them grocery shopping every week, all out of the kindness of her heart. She was a good friend, wife, mother and grandmother. She was fun to be around, and I miss her already. May she rest in peace.

“ I was glad to be a friend of Debbie's on Facebook & able to follow her life somewhat through that. Haven't seen her in many years but, we had some great conversations on the phone. I have a DVD of relatives when she was very small and swimming with all the Bartholomew's at Morse Lake. The cutest little blonde & always so happy to be in the water. RIP honey.
