“ Lois loved her family. She used to talk alot about her kids. You could see and hear how proud she was of them. Lois spent her live serving others. She would work long hard hours on her feet waitressing to provide for her kids. She touched so many people with her servant's heart. I remember her crooked finger that she could never point at you, and her funny little laugh. Rest in peace sweet lady; you are now in the comfort and protection of the Lord.
