“ She was my neighbor when I was a child. I never forgot her, and have tried to reach her a couple of times without success. She gave me her doll, Belinda, and a little cookstove that really worked. Mostly I remember a kind soul I loved being around. So yes, I remember "Coke." Mary G. "Sooky" Johnson.

“ Wayne and I dearly loved Aunt Deloris and Uncle Jim. We will never forget the card games and chili evenings we frequently enjoyed together. Deloris was really good to me over the years and we had some amazing conversations. Words can not describe how much Deloris will be missed.
