

Dolores Kindler

December 15, 1936 - March 2, 2018

Dolores Kindler, 81, of Indianapolis, was reunited with friends and family in the presence of the Lord, March 2, 2018. Born December 15, 1936 to Faye and Florence Evans, Dolores married Jack Kindler in 1955, and they were married 43 years until his passing in 1999. She is survived by her sister, Rita Moore; her three sons, Andy (Diane), Rod (Barb) and Mike (Barb) Kindler. The delights of her life were her six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren that she could never talk enough about! Dolores retired from Equitable Life Insurance Company and spent her retirement years playing bridge, traveling with friends, and spending time with her family. Throughout her life she was the strength and calming influence behind her family and often her friends. She has been an amazing wife, mother, grandma, great-grandma and good friend to many. As we grieve for ourselves we celebrate her eternal life. Visitation will be Monday, March 5, 2018 from 1:00 p.m. until the time of service at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., Fishers, IN 46038. Donations may be made to the American Heart Association, 6500 Technology Center Drive, Suite 100, Indianapolis, IN 46278.

“ I was so saddened to her of Dolores's passing. I had been able to speak with her about 10 days before her death and I knew she had moved to New Palestine. She had sent me the wrong phone number and so I had to write her, but when she found out what she had done she called me. She and I go back a long way. Maybe you will remember me, Marcia Atkinson. We worked together at Auto Owners in Marion and then again at State Auto Statesman Indpls. I am sorry I did not know in time to attend her service. Just know I think she was a great role model. She never complained of her limitations and was fun to be with. Loved your dad too. I had a son and a daughter. My daughter, Dee Dee, passed away in 2001. My son is Brent Hall and he went with me a couple of years ago to visit with your mom. We were able to catch up with info on all three of you boys and families. May God give you peace and remember the great memories. Love Marcia.

“ I still use the "Sloppy Joe" recipe I received from Delores when Brian and I were dating back in the 70's. Brian always spoke so highly of your mom. We are sorry for your (and the world's) loss, but glad she is now with your dad. Brian and Susan Sears

“ Dolores was a wonderful friend. I was so blessed to have worked with her at the Equitable. My kids will always remember going to her house and playing with her toy horse. I'm so sorry for the family's loss. She will be greatly missed!
