“ I remember mom Uncle Done sister, taking us to see them on Sundays when we were younger. SHE always turned at the wrong turn, but she got us there, then on the way home we would stop at this market to get produce! I remember Uncle Don teasing me every time, don't remember what about, but we always had a great time seeing Aunt Alene and our cousins! Also at the reunions! Will miss you Uncle Don see you some day! Love you! Janice

“ I have fond memories of visiting Uncle Don and spending time there, my Uncle Don was so heart warming to us and cared very much. Sad for his passing and my condolences to his children and family. I wish as my adult life, i would of had more time to see him, having a family of my own and raising takes a lot of time. In the distance in recent years, i always had him in my thoughts. He is a great and wonderful Uncle, . I was blessed to see him at my Moms (his sister) funeral and recently my brothers funeral. He will be seeing them in heaven. I will always have a special place of memory of him in my heart.

God bless you Uncle Don... Love Johnny
