

Donald J. Lindgren, Jr.

March 28, 1957 - May 26, 2011

Donald J. Lindgren, Jr. 54, of Indianapolis, passed away May 26, 2011. He was born March 28, 1957 to Donald J. and Mary A. Halligan Lindgren. Don graduated from Kokomo High School in the class of 1975. He received his B. A. at IU Kokomo in 1983, and his Masters of Social Work at IUPUI in 1986. He was employed with Midtown Community Mental Health as the Director of Older Adult Services, for the past 10 years. Don was a member of the National Association of Social Work, and worked tirelessly to further the cause of people in crisis. Don's passions were many and varied. If he couldn't be golfing, Don was enjoying time with Marcia and other family and friends, eating at ethnic restaurants, working out, attending his nieces and nephew's events, and staying up past his bedtime. Clearly, Don lived life well and on his own terms. Visitation will be held Tuesday, May 31, from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., with funeral services Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. Don is survived by his life companion, Marcia Murdock; mother, Mary Lindgren; brother, Jim Lindgren, his wife, Tammy and their children, Christina Loyd, her husband, Ryan, Cindy Nowling, her husband Mike and their son, Jude, Candace Baugh, her husband, Brad; sister, Ann Marie Catt, her children, Ben and Sarah; sister, Bridget Rogers, her husband, Mark and their children, Elle and Annalise Rogers. His father, Donald J. Lindgren, Sr., preceded him in death. Memorial contributions in Don's memory, may be made to the Wishard Memorial Foundation, 1001 W. 10th St., Indianapolis, IN.
