“ When Donna called me the first time to discuss what would soon be her new best fur friend, I knew she was an Angel. In this business, you get a vibe right away about people and she was wonderful. I will never forget her tears when she finally laid eyes on her new love. She cried happy tears that were so genuine she had us all in tears by the end of the adoption event. I appreciate her love for people and animals alike and I had the chance to build a friendship with her after that day. She called me often and shared silly stories about dogs in general, the check on me when my dad was ill and just catch up. As the Founder of Heaven After Hell Rescue, I see many people come and go but Donna was one who you just hang on to because she was so wonderful to be around. My deepest sympathies for her children and family. If you need anything, let us know! Thank you for bringing her in that day. She definitely touched all of us.
