“ It’s been several years since you went to live with our Lord and I still think of all the memories we shared. Working with you were the best part of my career. You could always make my day brighter. I know your singing in Heaven. God must of needed an Angel

“ Donna was a wonderful and caring friend. We met in 1982 while working together in the hotel business in downtown Indy. We've stayed in touch over the years and usually got together with one of our other friends, LuAnn. The three of us would spend hours at restaurants - sometimes going through three shifts of servers just laughing and catching up on our lives. When Donna and I started laughing together, it seemed we couldn't stop.

She shared in our family milestones, as well as sadness and tragedy. She was always there for support.

She was devoted to her family. Donna also loved the Lord and led her life as a deeply committed Christian.

The last I saw her we talked about taking a "girls only" trip. My big regret is that we didn't get this scheduled.

Thoughts and prayers for her husband, Marvin, and her stepchildren and grandchildren.

My family and I will miss her very much. She is now wrapped in the arms of the Lord.

Love you Lady,

Barb
