

Dora Mae "Doty" Martin

September 12, 1933 - April 25, 2015

Dora Mae, better known as Doty, was born September 12, 1933, in Celina, OH, to the late Clyde and Viola M. Gillian Wurster. She was the second of four children and graduated from Celina High School in 1951. She attended Cleveland Bible College until a serious illness forced her to return home and discontinue her higher education. During her lengthy recovery, the doctor suggested moving to a new location might be helpful in her recuperation, so she went to spend some time with her older sister, Virginia, in Indianapolis.

Not long after arriving in Indianapolis, the course of her life was changed by a simple evening at a roller skating rink when a young man named Paul tied her skates. She went home and told her sister she had just met the man she was going to marry. After only a couple of weeks, he proposed and three months later on May 22, 1953, she married the love of her life, Paul E. Martin. This happy marriage lasted almost sixty-two years. Due to her illness, the doctors informed her that she would never bear children. One evening, as Rev. A.D. Urshan laid hands on her and prayed, everything changed. God took control of the situation, which resulted in four healthy children being born: Natalie Sue, Matthew Paul, Joanna Lynn, and Suzanne Marie. Together they raised four happy children with firm but loving hands. Their home was filled with lots of love and many wonderful memories. Natalie remembers being sent to the drug store with a dollar bill to buy twenty candy bars and the feasting that followed. Matthew will always remember the special lunch dates with her at Red Lobster before leaving for Bible College. Joanna fondly remembers the wild wheelchair ride to the gift shop for a much-needed shopping spree at the hospital while awaiting Gregory's arrival. Suzie recalls the life changing moment at Christmas time when Doty told her she would give birth to a child by the following Christmas. Like her mom, she had been told she would never bear children, but Annika Suzanne was born December 14th of the following year.

Doty was a spitfire. You never wondered what she was thinking because she told you. She was a unique combination of strong, sassy, loving, giving, and serving. She had a gift of cooking and serving and was just ornery enough to still make it to heaven (in our opinion). Countless lives were touched by her wisdom as she stood at a stove or behind a steam table. She never held ministerial credentials but the influence of her ministry reaches around the world. Countless Calvary Christian School and Indiana Bible College students along with children and young people on the Indiana District Campground were influenced by her willingness to do the Lord's work. Only eternity will reveal the impact of her labor. She was a longtime and faithful member of the Calvary Tabernacle Church.

She enjoyed her grandchildren, vacationing in Florida, doing puzzles, computer seek and find games, and perusing social media sites. We are not quite sure that she ever totally understood the difference between posting a message and a private message. We experienced a few awkward moments to say the least.

On Saturday, April 25, 2015, Doty went to be with the Lord at the age of 81. This loving wife, mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, sister-in-law, and friend will be terribly missed by all who knew her.

Doty was preceded in death by her parents, Clyde and Viola Wurster, and her two sisters, Virginia Pearson and Dottie Hanna.

She is survived by her loving husband of almost 62 years, Paul E. Martin; four devoted children, Natalie S. Gwaltney and husband Timothy, Rev. Matthew P. Martin and wife Kala, Joanna L. Godwin, and Suzanne M. Joki and husband Rev. Gregg Joki; Eight grandchildren, Abigail L. Kendrick and husband Keith, Allison N. Barber and husband Rev. Christopher Barber, Adrienne S. Adams and husband Blake, Meghan L. Brown and husband Kyle, Matthew P. Martin II and wife Amanda, Gregory P. Godwin, Joanna Brooke Pritt and husband Rev. Nathanael Pritt, and Annika S. Joki; Two adorable great-grandchildren, Silas C. Barber, Riley B. Martin, and soon to arrive, August C. Brown; her brother, Clyde L. Wurster, and brother-in-law Dale Hanna, as well as a host of friends and a loving church family.

“ There are no words to express our sorrow at the loss of our dear friend, Doty. Sis. Martin was "one of a kind". My husband, David, thought Matthew could act any part in any play that he produced-- including the "bad boy" in the story. Doty once expressed to him how horrifying it was to her to see her precious son act in such horrible ways. Of course, it was only an act, and David convinced her that Matthew was the best to perform that way. We had a lot of laughs over the years about that.

My parents were privileged to work with her on many Calvary Anniversary dinners. My mother always said Doty could manage a kitchen full of people and get the job done with excellence better than anyone.

I always appreciated her testimony about the gift of her children. I know she truly loved her children and protected them and taught them to be the BEST. She would accept nothing else.

I'm sure she has gone home to heaven to help prepare the marriage supper of the Lamb. There is probably something the Lord wants to serve that couldn't be done just right unless Doty had a hand in it. Our loss is Heaven's gain, and we will look forward to seeing her there soon.

We loved Doty and the whole Martin family. We loved never knowing what she would say, but she always said it with a smile. As in Psalm 31, her children can rise up and call her blessed! Our love to all of you. Thank you Matthew, Natalie, Joanna, and Susie for being a great part of our lives when we were in Indy. We pray for peace and comfort during this time. “ I remember spending many nights and Calvary Tabernacle anniversary weekends with her daughter Natalie. She always made me feel a part of the family. She loved her family and was a great homemaker and mother. As a child I always thought there wasn't anything she couldn't do. She will have many stars in her crown. I pray for peace and comfort for the Martin family.

“ We always held Paul and Doty in great respect. Always consistent, faithful, loved the church and Gods people. I (Lana) was privileged to babysit their four children while Doty the cook worked for Calvarys annual Anniversary dinner. I have many memories and the one thing I always thought of when remembering Doty was how she loved her family. She will be missed by many. Our love and prayers are with the family during this hard time in life.
