

Dorothea E. Hyer

September 13, 1933 - August 29, 2009

Dorothea Edna Johnston Hyer of Fishers, IN passed away on August 29, 2009. She was born in 1933 in Camden, NJ to William and Dorothy Johnston. Most family and friends called her ♦Dorothy♦ or ♦Dottie♦. She has been a devoted wife and a loving mother to her two girls, Karen Lee and Diane Marie. Dorothy made friends easily because of her sincere interest in those she met and her sense of humor. ♦She made me laugh♦, was a common description by her friends. Her interests and activities beyond family included longtime Indianapolis Zoo member, the Humane Society, International Bowling Assoc. and the Junior Symphony. She also loved to sew, having made many dresses and jackets for her girls and herself, and the occasional fancy tie for her husband. Like many young mothers, she worked outside the home during the early marriage years to help support the family, mostly as an administrative aide. Dorothy is survived by her husband of 55 years, Anthony Hyer; daughters, Karen Vaccaro and Diane Rosenthal; two grandchildren, Charles Rosenthal and Madeline Rosenthal; and her sister, Margaret Teiwes of Wheaton, IL. Visitation will be Wednesday, September 2nd from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Road, Fishers, IN.
