“ I was thinking of Mrs. Goul today when I remembered how she would walk her summer students from her home on College up a block to the public library on Park Avenue in the early 1980s. My daughter remembers this still! Mrs. Goul was patient and calm and exuded a sense of purpose and focus. Her work in the Montessori school in the basement of the church at 38th and Meridian was a gift. It's funny to think that I am the age she was when she taught my daughter--I don't know if I would have the energy to do what she did! Please know that your mother was a devoted teacher.
