“ Dorothy, my friend, you were there at the moment I needed you most when my own mother went to Heaven so many years ago. Thank you for being a light in the darkness for me, and for always welcoming me and my children into your home as if we were your own. You and Clay were my parents' best friends, and growing up next door to you made life a little more fun and meaningful for the Mays kids. I cherish this photo of you that I took last summer on your patio. May the light of Heaven shine down on the family during this difficult time. All who knew you will miss you dearly.
