“ Douglas was one of my many cousins in Indiana. Living in Florida, we only saw each other at family reunions. He was always such a joy to see & always had that great Castor disposition I looked forward to. I love you..

“ I've never met anyone more like my papaw than Mr. Castor. His smile could turn anyone's day around... my mom and I grew especially close to him during his short time spent at Rosegate Village and he has forever left an impact on us. Such a sweet soul.

“ Loved this man with all my heart. He was like a grandfather to me and always loved looking forward to seeing him at church. He was a wonderful man and always had great advice to give. He will be missed very much by my grandfather Quent Hammond and I.

“ At church Doug would walk down the hall to the kindergarten room while I was getting things together for class. He always wanted a hug and an enthusiastic "Happy Sabbath." It was hard for him to walk so far, but I really appreciated his smiling face. He always had a good word for everybody. He made friends easily and never met a stranger. He was looking forward to going home with his heavenly Father one day.
