

E. "Maxine" Keller Angrick

March 22, 1922 - January 30, 2016

E. "Maxine" Keller Angrick, 93, of Greenwood, passed away January 30, 2016. She was born March 22, 1922 near Marshall, IL, to the late Robert and Edith Keller. The family moved to Indianapolis when she was a young child. Maxine graduated from Arsenal Technical High School in 1940 and was employed with Citizens Gas Co. for 37 years, retiring in 1984. Maxine and her husband Paul moved to Greenwood Village South after retirement. She was an avid bridge player and the couple enjoyed many activities with their family. They were members of Southport Presbyterian Church.

Visitation will be Thursday, February 4, 2016 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Irving Hill Chapel, 5377 E. Washington St.

Maxine is survived by her husband of 50 years, Paul Angrick; sister, Joan Juday (Robert) of Dallas, TX; daughter, Linda Zander Copenhaver Otto (David); grandchildren, Teresa Bowman (Brice), David Copenhaver (Sheila) and Paul Copenhaver (Ana); three great-grandsons, Benjamin Brown (Yamilli), Jeremiah and Joshua Copenhaver; and one great-great-grandson, Wyatt Brown. She was preceded in death by her sister, Berniece Via; brothers, Lloyd and Robert Keller; and her beloved great-granddaughter, Maggie Brown.
