“ Thoughts and prayers to the family,who Ive known many years growing up in Jasonville. It seemed Earlene was everywhere. She was a hard working lady rasiing her children. She was always friendly but had no problem speaking her mind,and would help anyone in need.

Shelly,through you coming to the hospital after my sons accident,seeing you had a life,you could drive,find love and work,you even told me some funny stories what involves living in a w/c can be like and you was able to laugh. It made me remember some of the stories I had heard after your accident that it was your mom that gave you no choice but to learn how to live and go on with your life, so you and your mom played a big part in how I try to do the same with KJ. I know from my heart and exact experience,she did it all because she loved you and refused to allow you to hide away and become nothing and what you have become is her,a strong willed lady. So I thank you both.
