

Edith L. Hunter

December 9, 1914 - February 14, 2008

Edith Louise Evans Hunter, Passed away February 14th at Palm Beach Gardens (Florida) Medical Center after several weeks of pulmonary illness. She is survived by her devoted husband of 67 years, Jack A. Hunter; her grand-nephew, Ken Vogel, of Bradenton, Fla.; and a host of dear friends in both Indianapolis and her winter home in North Palm Beach, Florida. Born in Canton, Illinois, Edith was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, (deceased), and the sister of Dora, Gladys, Florence, and Elizabeth-- all deceased. Following graduation from Canton, Ill., High School, Edith came to Indianapolis to attend Butler University-- living with her sisters, Gladys and Elizabeth, who were teaching in Indianapolis Public Schools. At Butler she met Jack, her soulmate for life. While fulfilling required studies for her BBA degree, she became skilled in shorthand and typing (essential secretarial skills at the time). Thus she found immediate employment in the office of the then-Governor, Paul V. McNutt, and continued secretarial work in various offices, public and private, for 20 years. Among her various activities, Edith was a 50-year member of Second Presbyterian Church, Sunnyside Guild, and Alpha Nu Latreian. Friends may call at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., on Monday, February 25 from 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. Funeral services will be conducted by Reverend Joyce Hunn at 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, February 26th, at Crown Hill Cemetery Gothic Chapel.
