

Edward E. "Ed" Brown

January 10, 1926 - February 18, 2012

86, of Indianapolis, passed away February 18, 2012. Ed was a native Hoosier and graduated from Howe High School in 1944. Ed was a Sergeant in the 3rd Army, 1st Artillery Battalion, serving in Germany during World War II. After his time in the service, he ran the family piano company prior to embarking on his lifelong career in the life insurance industry. Ed will be remembered for his strength and love of family. Ed's loving wife of 62 years, Mary Beth, recently preceded him in death. Their years together at their home on Lake Tippecanoe provided wonderful family memories. Ed is survived by daughters, Amy (Karl) Maierhofer and Honey (Ryan) Winger; sons, Duke (Cindy) and Mitch Brown; seven grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. So that all the Brown family members can be present, services are planned for July 7, 2012, when Ed and Mary Beth will be interred together. Memorial contributions may be made to New Hope Presbyterian Church Building Fund, 12250 Brooks School Road, Fishers, IN, 46038. Arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel. www.shirleybrothers.com.
