“ Our most sincere condolences to Myrt and family. It will not be the same weekly breakfast, we will miss Ed's input. Eddie was my neighbor, friend and fellow dodger blue blood. We certainly will miss his baseball knowledge, and let us not forget the great golf outings. Rest In Peace, Eddie

“ Who can forget Ed's shouts of "hot, golden French fries" for so many years at the CUMC fish fry. Ed and my dad served proudly in the navy in WWII and were in the same task force in key battles in the south Pacific. Though they never knew each other, Ed served on a fuel transport and my dad on an aircraft carrier, I treasure this connection to Ed. My deepest sympathies on the loss of this wonderful man. “ To the Family of our dear Neighbor Ed Moss: Ed will be missed in his neighborhood. He was a friend, didn't know a stranger and was loving to the ladies. He was a true gentlemen, a patriot and that booming voice always commanded attention. Life has been a struggle over the last couple of years, but that did not stop him from enjoying life. We could learn a lesson from him. Please accept our sincere condolences over your loss. God Bless, Tom & Carmen Mock

“ It is a sad day to learn of the loss of Ed. He was a WWII veteran and patriot.
As a child growing up in Brooklyn in the 40's, I remember him fondly for his kindness to me and as my father's friend. Our sincere sympathies to Myrt and family.
