“ I'm so grateful that God brought Uncle Ed into our families lives when he married my Aunt Pearl. Uncle Ed was always smiling and happy. He brought so much joy into everyone's life. We have wonderful memories of him. One of my favorite memories was how much he loved my Aunt Pearl's cooking. They loved each other so much. Now they are together in Heaven. Uncle Ed, will be missed!!

We Love you,

“ I met Gramps when he was 90 years old and even then he had a sparkle in his eye and a mischievous smile. He and Pearl were always welcoming and made Kara, Jake and I feel like part of the family even before David and I were married. Gramps was so important to David and we were honored to have him stand with us when we were married. I can see Gramps' smile and sparkling eyes in David when he tells a Gramps story. I will always be grateful to Gramps for the influence he had in making David the man he is today.
I will miss you Gramps. I love you.

“ I met Ed Spitzer a few months before he married my Mother (Pearl Spitzer). I immediately liked him as he was full of life, loved having fun and I could tell that my Mother and him really cared about each other. They were a great couple together and enjoyed visiting family and friends in Indiana and all over the country. Ed was a great grandpa to my children and they called him "Papa Ed". Whether it was visiting Ed and Mom's house in Muncie or going to the Lake at Tippecanoe Ed always made sure that we had a good time, went for boat rides, going fishing, essentially whatever the kids wanted to do.

When Ed and Mom visited Arizona we kept him busy with different activities and sightseeing trips. One of my best memories is when we took Ed (in his mid-90's) riding quads in the desert. Ed loved it and all the grand-kids and my Brother Kris and I thought he was the coolest.

Ed Spitzer was a blessing that came into my Mother and our lives almost 30 years ago. He was one of the nicest most interesting men I have ever met. I never met anyone that said a unkind word about him or didn't enjoy being around him

He will be missed but definitely not forgotten.

We love you "Papa Ed".
