

Elanor "Margaret" Sears

October 11, 1931 - October 2, 2025

Elanor "Margaret" Sears,

93, of Beech Grove, passed away October 2, 2025. She was born October 11, 1931 in Russellville, Kentucky to the late William and Lillie Bell Poole McGee. Margaret married Odell Sears and he preceded her in death on August 29, 2011. She retired from R.C.A. after many years of service.

Margaret was a founding member of Gray Road Baptist Church. She was a loving daughter, sister, wife and mother who loved spending time with her family as often as time would allow.

Visitation will be Wednesday, October 8, 2025 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 1:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel, 3333 E. Thompson Road.

Margaret is survived by her son, Bill Sears (Christina); grandson, James Sears; and great-grandson, Austin Sears.

“ Margaret was such a kind and gracious person. She was always quick with a smile and word of encouragement, and when she was still able to attend church I often found myself seeking her out because talking with her always felt good. I'm so thankful to God for her life and how He blessed us all through her. She is sorely missed! I am praying for her family at this time.
