“ I'll truly miss Eleanor. We are so sorry to learn of her passing and offer our sincere condolences to Barry and the entire family.

One of my fondest memories of Eleanor was her mission of teaching me to dance in my Baba's (grandmother's) kitchen when I was sixteen or seventeen. She was relentless, I was doing the BOX STEP in my sleep. Eleanor had this mission of getting me out of my shell and of my overcoming my fear of girls. Eleanor and her sisters must have introduced me to every girl who lived on Woodbine St. or within a mile of it. The only thing wrong with all those girls is that they didn't measure up to Eleanor or her sisters, who I used as my standard.

Eleanor had a smile that came from deep in her heart, a heart that was full of love for all. This world has lost one of its dearest treasurers.

We'll truly miss her, Jack and Agnes Keegan

“ This photo of Ellie captures Ellie at her best. With rosy cheeks and a warm and friendly smile that we all loved. We will miss all the good times and laughs we had together. She was such an easy person to get to know and love. Saturday night in Naples won't be the same without you. RIP

“ Great picture of Ellie! I worked with Ellie at Dr. Stone,s office many years ago. What wonderful memories of him and his patients. Good times for all of us. I remember meeting Susan when Ellie brought her in as a toddler, and she talked a lot about her love Barry. My condolences to all of the family. God Bless! Sandi Schulz

Jill and I are so sad to hear of the passing of Ellie. My funniest moment with Ellie was after the birth of our nephew Jacob and Ellie's son David and I were trying to put together the diaper genie. Ellie was full of advice that day which led to significant laughter by all. I will miss you Ellie. Our heart and prayers go out to Barry, Dave, and Susan.
