“ Staying in touch with Aunt Betty over the last few years was something I looked forward to, and I will SO miss her love and friendship. I can only imagine the "reunion" she is enjoying with family and friends who went Home before us. I find comfort in knowing she is no longer bound to the cares of this world, and look forward to seeing her again. Paul, Janice, and Jim ... You folks were SO attentive and supportive of your Mom, and I know she was grateful. Caring for someone you love all the way to the end of the journey is something you will never regret. God bless you for being there for her. ~ Debbie
