

Eleanor Williams

December 23, 1937 - January 22, 2013

Eleanor Williams, 75, of New Palestine, went to be with her Lord, January 22, 2013. She was born on December 23, 1937, in Eubank, KY, to the late Eugene and Audrey Osborne. Eleanor is survived by her husband of 53 years, Donald R. Williams; two sons, Robert S. Williams (Loretta) of New Palestine and Neal E. Williams (Carla) of Westfield; six grandchildren, Beth A., Sarah E., Mary R., Laura M., Rachael M. and Hannah R. Williams, all of Indianapolis. She is also survived by four brothers, Charles Pelley, Winston Osborne, Paul Osborne, and Darrell Osborne; and one sister, Fern Klier. Eleanor's family was very important to her. She was a loving wife, wonderful mother, supportive and loving grandmother, compassionate sister, and a faithful friend to many. Her brothers were very important to her, and she was best friends her entire life with her only sister, Fern. Eleanor loved her Lord and Savior, which was evident by the way she lived her life. She served faithfully in church nurseries for over 50 years, and was an adoptive grandmother to many. She served the Lord with her hands by creating and sewing thousands of quilts to be given to those in need. In 2006, Eleanor was presented with an award from the Indiana State Police for this very service, and was also a Sagamore of the Wabash Recipient. Many children and elderly are enjoying these quilts sewn in love. Visitation will be Saturday, January 26, 2013, from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service at 1:00 p.m. at Colonial Hills Baptist Church, 8140 Union Chapel Road, Indianapolis, IN 46240. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Colonial Hills Baptist Church.

Arrangements entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.
