“ My first and probably best job ever was working for Lib and Lou at the Irvington Dairy Queen. A lot about running a successful business could be learned by working with them. They were great at managing a bunch of teenagers....especially during a banana split sale! They expected a lot from us, cared about what was going on in our lives and managed to keep the teenage drama to a minimum. It was always fun when Lou Ann or Vicki came in to work a shift with us too. I'm glad they were able to travel the world!
