“ May the peace God gives sustain your family during this difficult time. Lean on one another as the days ahead become to hard to bear alone. Share your memories they will be a source of joy. Seeing the promises in God's word the bible will help you to gain strength and fortify your hearts, granting you comfort. (2 Thessalonians 2:16,17; jw.org)

“ Eloise was always in our lives growing up as my dad's cousin. And she always had such a sweet and positive disposition, just like her mother, our dear Great Aunt Marie. The last time I saw her, about a year ago, my brother and I visited and took her out to lunch. She was such fun to be with and talk to -- quite sharp and full of fun memories of our family. We'll miss you Eloise! Say hello to Aunt Marie for me.

“ What a classy lady she was. I was blessed to have grown up around Jay and Jenny and to have known her. I'm sure my Mother was there to say hello and welcome her into Heaven. God Bless the entire family and all their friends during this difficult time.

“ My aunt Eloise, like her mother Marie, was a person of warmth, generosity and good humor, who made everyone who knew her happier. She overcame tremendous grief in her life and, nevertheless, was a person of exemplary optimism. We who were the beneficiaries of her love are better persons for her example.
