

Emery "Walter" Huffines, Jr.

October 18, 1976 - January 13, 2020

Emery "Walter" Huffines, Jr., 43, of Indianapolis, passed away January 13, 2020. He was born October 18, 1976 in Indianapolis, IN, to Emery W. and Anna Huffines. Walter was a graduate of Broad Ripple High School and attended Ivy Technical College. He proudly served his country in the U.S. Navy for 12 years and was lastly employed with Conagra.

Walter loved serving his country and traveling the world. He was a sports and car enthusiast, and a diehard Colts, Purdue and Pacers fan. Most of all he loved spending time with family.

Walter is survived by his father, Emery W. Huffines Sr.; siblings, Jaruan Williams, Komsan Huffines (April), Linda Taylor (Gary) and Allen Huffines; and seven nieces and nephews. Walter was preceded in death by his mother, Anna Huffines.

Visitation will be Saturday, February 1, 2020 from 12 noon until the time of service at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 East Washington Street.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are suggested to the family to defray funeral expenses.

I don't have any words to do him justice. I had a chance to have some talks with him on deployment and they were great talks. Grace and peace to you brother

Such great memories serving with Emery. Don't think another sailor could make me belly laugh like he did. Peace be with you brother.

He had such a strong core, he could see right through you to the truth. I always looked forward to seeing him again.
