

Emil C. Evancich

April 19, 1924 - February 16, 2010

Emil C. Evancich, 85, of Carmel, passed away February 16, 2010. He was born April 19, 1924 in Chicago, IL, to the late Frank and Emily (Cosich) Evancich. Emil served his country in the U.S. Army during WWII in the 94th Medical Gas Treatment Battalion, and was very active in Battalion Reunions after the war. Emil married Gertrude Hooksma, and she preceded him in death in 2008. He retired from Wirecraft Company, where he was an electrical engineer, and then owned/operated his own wire and cable company called Wireflex. Visitation will be Friday, February 19, 2010 from 2:00 p.m. until the time of services at 3:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. Emil is survived by his loving children, Jeffrey (Colleen) Evancich, Jennifer (Troy) Skinner, and Nicholas (Nicole) Evancich; grandchildren, Jeannette, Jamie, Michael, Kelly, Shealeigh, Charlotte ♦Coco♦, and Lila; great-grandchildren, Brionn and Caroline. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.