“ I met Ernest in 2003 he his the grandfather for my 2 daughters and the great grandfather to my 2 grandsons.

The memories I have are all great ones if you have come across this man's path they are all great memories he always had a smile a hug and a kind word for all and even a joke or story he would tell he loved his family and was a great friend to all he knew. He will be so greatly missed. Love you and miss you till we meet again.
