“ I will NEVER forget the how wonderfully Bro. Cordell sewed into my life (and so many others), he was a great man of God and an example to all who were privileged to know him. I am a Much better man today because of him and one day I will stand at attention and give the Boy Scout salute when we meet again in heaven.

“ I remember as a child my dad taking me downtown to modeling school. He thought this would bring me out of my shyness. I loved the pretty dresses I got to wear. I'm so glad I had a dad who loved me and I loved him very much!!!! He will never be forgotten!!!!
